So why should be so concerned about this topic when many people from all over the world have been involved with the 'good works' from the Freemasons. Aren't they just another social organization? Don't they just have 'men's games' and have a good time together? Aren't they just a group of memo who help other memo in business?

There is only One authorised, legitimate power source in this universe, Creator God. Any other power source exposes us to another spiritual dimension. This other 'kingdom' has set itself up against God and all He stands for. As a result, this other kingdom is rebellious, demonic and outside God's protective covering.

We have worked with many clients who have needed to find release from this demonic power source in order to follow the Lord Jesus.

It is our hope that this material will be of help and bring freedom for you, the reader, as well. We want to thank all the contributors to this Special Report, especially the research work from: Dr. Stuart Robinson, "Society of Secrets". His material is used with his permission.

We are all on our journey. Please remember the purpose of this report if for you to go the Lord for yourself because you can hear God for yourself! What is He saying about these issues for you?

This is not a 'witch hunt' but am attempt to help you find a Personal Spiritual Cleansing that will help your growth with the true Lord Jesus Christ.

Thank you for your time and interest.

May God's best be in your life,
Daniel and Susan Fengler

A Special Report on: What's Wrong with the Involvement in the Freemason Organization

From the author: There are many myths and stories written about the Freemasons. Some are written by the Freemasons themselves, some by good research writers and others who have sensationalised what they haven't understood. Some people have used the Freemason information as a platform to build suspicions, founded on half-truths and thus, unstable. However, we do believe this topic is so important, especially for Christians that we have entered the arena with information that may help others.

We find that there are four main reasons to present this Special Report:

- * To inform people about the true nature of the organization,
- * To present five reasons why someone who calls themselves a Christian needs to stop and see another point of view,
- * To help wives and other generations understand the implications of having male relatives involved in this Society,
- * To help those already involved, or thinking about being involved, what is the foundation for such groups. Sadly most men initiated into Freemason Society have little knowledge of what they are joining.

This is not a Special Report to attack or put down the Freemasons as a group but rather to inform others about the 'Secret nature' of the group and the long-term consequences of being involved in their initiation levels and ceremonies.

We have viewed many sources as a way of presenting this material. This article, written by Dr Stuart Robinson, Senior Pastor at Crossway Baptist Church, was one of the best, shortest and most comprehensive article we found. We repeat his article written for 'ON BEING' Magazine with his permission.

We have also included a well-used and reliable prayer for your consideration should you feel convicted of the need to personally renounce your involvement in the Freemasons.

'A Society of Secrets', adapted from an article written by Dr. Stuart Robinson:

'Society of Secrets' from the ON BEING magazine, October, 1986.

Some people view the Freemasons as a sort of harmless boy scouts for adults, or as a 'Rotary with rituals'. To others, it is just a businessmen's club. One writer in the Melbourne Herald in January 1984 called it "...an international society espousing botherliness, charity and mutual aid."

To British clergyman, Gerry Moate, it is an "occult, sinister society which manipulates the levers of power within a nation." (Today, March 1983)

However, the Freemasons are possibly the largest secret society in the world, with many reputations and faces. It is estimated that there are over six million Masons around the globe at the time of writing this material in 1984. Although banned in many countries, including Russia, China, Hungary and Spain, it is still a power to be reckoned with, particularly in Western Europe and America.

By 1984, seventeen United States president - including Ronald Reagan - have been Masons. Mozart, Churchill and all the British kings since 1820 with the exception of George V, have been Masons, including Prince Phillip. According to a 1977 survey, there are in excess of 350,000 Masons in Australia.

The best definition of Freemasonry probably comes from the Freemasons themselves. When candidates are passing to the Second Degree within Freemasonry, the question is asked "What is Freemasonry?" The candidate replies that it is "a peculiar system of Morality, veiled in Allegory and illustrated by Symbols". (The Ritual)

The Origins of the Freemasons

To understand Freemasonry and form a Christian response to it, we need to explore something of its origins and development. Freemasonry likes to think of itself as existing almost from the dawning of civilization, in association with the oldest religions systems known to the world.

In spirit, that may well be so - far more than the Masons themselves realize. However, in practice, there is no convincing evidence that it existed prior to the formation of the four lodges in London, which became known as the first 'Grand Lodge of 1717'.

Originally, it was a type of 18th century trade union for stonemasons, who lived in temporary quarters near construction sites called 'Lodges'. Eventually, religious symbolism was introduced and the rules for the Guild were drawn up, which all members had to keep. In time, 'non-operative masons' had their Lodges, quite detached from the building trade.

After 1717, there commenced a move to 'de-Christianise' the movement. Between 1723 and 1813, use of the name of Christ in prayers died out. In quotations from Scripture, the name of Christ was deleted. Rituals become shrouded in pagan symbols. Elements of the religious cults of ancient Greece, Rome and Egypt were added, replacing previous Christian content.

C.W. Leadbeater, Bishop of the Liberal Catholic Church, who reached the highest order of Freemasonry - the 33rd Degree, said that 'Masonry is derived from the old Egyptian Mystery-faith', ".....and that it was...much influenced by Tammuz worship."

Tammuz was the heathen fertility god of Mesopotamia and Syria, who was described in Ezekiel as "..detestable...", Ezekiel 8:14-15.

The Structure of the Freemasons

Today there are different types of Lodges. The most common is the Blue Lodge. It has three Craft degrees. One enters as a novice and becomes an 'Entered Apprentice'. The Apprentice is then 'passed' to become a 'Fellow Craft Mason'.

In the third Degree, he is finally 'raised' to being a 'Master Mason'. Along the way, rituals, secret signs, handgrips, passwords and working tools are gradually shared with the candidate.

In addition to the three Basic Degrees, there are 30 superior degrees. As one passes through them, more and more is revealed. Entering each Degree, the Mason takes certain oaths to ensure secrecy.

When an apprentice enters at the lowest Degree, he vows, according to the Ritual, "...to accept that should he divulge the secrets of the Lodge, he may have his 'throat cut across' and 'his tongue torn out by its roots'...". The Candidate for the Second Degree accepts '... to have his left breast laid open....' and '...his heart torn therefrom'.

A Master Mason - someone of the Third Degree - agrees that '.....his bowels may be turned to ashes...' if he reveals any secrets. An 'Exalte of the Royal Arch', which is an extension of the Third Degree, accepts '.....the he may be the top of his skull sliced off should he divulge particular secrets'.

In practice, what happens today by way of any penalty is that a person may be shunned by the entire Brotherhood in a serious attempt to bring him to ruin. Yet, these are very serious oaths taken by men in full possession of their faculties to deliberately bind themselves, the implications of which are enormous. We are handly dealing with an adult version of the Boy Scouts.

Is Freemason a religion as many of its critics claim?

Many Masonic writers deny this yet for the Christian, it is a fundamental question. Many Hindus say that there are no idols in Hinduism. Many Buddhists say that Buddhism is not a religion but a way of life. We know from the activities of most Hindus and Buddhists that worship through idols is a widespread practice.

J.S.M Ward, one of the Masonry's better known authors, in his Entered Apprentice Handbook, says "...the objectand purpose of Masonry is the quest for, and the knowledge of, union with God." The question is union with which God/god?

Part of the question is: what is 'Salvation' to the Freemasons?

The Right Worshipful Brother J. Cowie, in his book 'Facing the East' - so named because that is the direction in which all Lodges face - says "All Masonry's injunctions are directed toward our preparation for the Grand Lodge above."

Within the ceremonies of Massionary, there are standard orders of worship, hymns and prayers. The prayers are asddressed to a divinty variously known as 'the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, the Grand Geometrician, the Great Architect, the All mighty Creator' and so on.

What appears to be heaven is referred to as 'The Grand Lodge above', which is the place where the Great Aritect lives and reigns. Faith in the Great Aritect and hope in salvation (not clearly define) are two of the three principles 'moral virtues' of Masons, the third being charitable works. Masons are told that they are assisted by 'a light fro above and that they are to listen to the voice of nature'. (The Ritual)

It would seem that, where all the elements of religion are present - prayer, worship of a supreme deity, life and death, some sort of heaven and so on - that it is a mere mechanism of avoidance not to describe that as a religion. It would be like saying that one atom of oxygen mixed with two atoms of hydrogen in a liquid form that boils at 100°C is not water. Call it 'snow' if you will, the substance remains the same.

Is Freemasonry a Religion? If so, then the next vital question for the Christian is: "What sort of religion is it?" To answer, we need to look at some more of Freemasonry's claims and compare the claims with those of Christianity.

1. Freemasonsry claims to be a 'repository of light and truth, veiled and hidden for our protection, to be revealed to those of whom the Lodge appriooves'. (A.J. Wilson, Sin in the Camp) That is, it claims to prossess 'special revelation'.

During the Initiation Ceremony for the 'Entered Apprentice', the Candidate is blindfolded to show his state of darkness. Then, during the ceremeony, he symbolically comes into the lght of new understanding and experience.

Jesus told those who would be His disciples to go and proclaim the real light and truth, not to hide it away to be given to a specially selected elite, Matthew 5:14, 28:18-20, Acts 1:8.

Freemasonry says: "You're blinded and ignorant,, but when you're initiated, you receive light and new understanding."

Jesus says: "I am the light of the world" (John 8:12) and "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life" (John 14:6) - "and My life and truth is to be declared freely to whoever will listen!"

2. We learn most about a person's religion by discovering the nature of the god he worships. Who is Freemansry's god? Chrisitans understand the nature of their God by reference to His titles - 'the Almighty, the Everlasting, the Merciful, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, The I AM, the Creator, our heavenly Father' and so on.

Freemasons uses various titles for the god they worship, but the most important is the secret 'lost name of God', which is revealed to the advancing Candidate as he is raised through the Royal Arch ritual. That name is 'JAH-BUL-ON' - a composite of Yahweh, Ba'al and On, a mystical form of modern syncretism.

Yahweh - or 'Jehovah' as it is often Anglicised - is the name of the God of Israel and of the Christian. This name is used throughout the Old Testament, usually represented in English tradition by capitalised world, "LORD".

'Bul' and 'On' are different matters. 'Bul' is another name for 'Ba'al'. He is mentioned from time to time in Scriptures - but always as Jehovah's enemy, 1 Kings 18. 'On' was the Egyptian god Osiris, Genesis 41:45.

The difference between the god of the Freemasons and the Christian God is vast and definite, poles apart in meaning and character.

Dr. C.N. Button, in his book Worthy Masons All, writes "It is impossible to exaggerate the difference between the god of Masonry and God of the Christians. The two conceptions are poles apart. The difference is so vital that no intelligent Christian can possible overlook it".

In the Ceremony of Initiation into the First Degree, the Candidate is asked: "...in all cases of difficulty and danger, in who do you put your trust?" In the Victorian Blue Lodge, the Candidate replies: "In God." In another Ritual, he acknowledges his belief in 'a supreme being'. This sounds fine - until you realize that this may be the Christian God, or Allah of the Muslim, or Shiva of the Hindu. It doesn't matter as long as one believes in some Supreme Being.

Masonry gives to its members the 'perfect liberty to interpret God however they please'. A statement issued by the English Grand Lodge said in June 1985: "The names used by the Supreme Being Jah-Bul-on, enable men of different faiths to join in prayer to God as they see Him without the terms of the prayer causing dissension among them." (The Age, 14 June 1985)

In practice, that means that if a Christian and a Hindu meet in a Lodge, the Christian has to acknowledge that the Hindu's god is ultimately the same as his own. But for the Christian, there can be but one God. In Isaiah 45:5, He Himself says: "I am the LORD (Yahweh) and there is not other; apart from me there is not God."

What about the Place of Jesus Christ?

It is hardly surprising to discover that Masonry does not give sole allegiance to the Son of God. In fact, the name of Jesus is omitted from the Masonic prayer. No ritual hymn or prayer is ever said in the name of Jesus.

Freemasonry is a very careful counterfeit - a type of religion which masquerades as little more than a good work's club.

For the Christian, this is an impossible situation for he cannot offer authentic worship to our God and exclude the names of Jesus. The name of Jesus is absolutely central to God's plan and purpose for man. In Philippians, we read that "God exalted Him ... that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow ... and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord", Philippians 2:9-11.

If God has done that, shall we dare to do less? Masonry is a movement that in practice excludes Jesus. Spiritually such a position is threateningly dangerous, 1 John 4:3, John 15:6-7.

3. With a different God and Jesus is virtually omitted, what sort of salvation is offered through Freemasonry, as Masons are prepared for 'the Great Lodge above'? The Working Tools Charge for a Fellow Craft Mason states: "Thus, by square conduct, level steps and upright intentions, we hope to ascend to those Heavenly mansions whence all goodness emanates". (The Ritual)

Masons are thus encouraged to lead pure, self-disciplined and upright lives and to be diligent in good works. These things are good, as our world needs more men like that. Yet it is fair to conclude that Masonry offers a salvation which is fundamentally achieved by good works.

The Bible, on the other hand, teaches that the only way we make peace with God is through the blood of Jesus Christ, Colossians 1:13-20. Our good works are fundamentally useless to us in this matter, Ephesians 2:8-9. At best, the tenets of Freemasonry make faith in Christ an optional extra. At worst, they simply ignore Him and the plan of salvation laid down in the Scriptures.

4. What about the Scriptures themselves? Freemasonry's rituals and instructions constantly refer to "the Volumes of Sacred Law". For the Freemason, the Sacred Law may be virtually any which is claimed to be such. It makes great show of using the Word of God but this may be the world of any god. Hence, the Grand Lodge in India arranges for its Lodge to keep five Volumes of Sacred Laws, namely the Bible of the Christian, the Gita of the Hindu, the Koran of the Moslem, the Granth of the Sikh and the Zand-Avasta of the Parsees. All are given a place of equal importance, according to A.J. Wilson.

5. Not only does Masonry dishonour the Bible, it also distorts its history. Most Masons probably think that the story of their alleged founder, Hiram Abiff being put to death by three assassins and raised to life by King Solomon of Israel is to be found somewhere in the Old Testament. It certainly is not. Certainly there was a Hiram who worked on the Temple, but he was a 'worker in brass' - not a stonemason, 1 Kings 7:14.

The Bible has much to say about itself. Suffice it here to quote 2 John 9: "Anyone who runs ahead and does not continue in the teaching of Christ does not have God."

For the Christian, there can be no revealed Scriptures other than the Bible.

So Freemasonry is a movement which claims to have its own mysterious revelation and its own god, which demotes the Bible by promotion other religious writings to a position of equivalence, deletes Jesus and relies on good works to reach the Grand Lodge above.

In the light of this, can a Christian be a Freemason?

The answer is obviously "Yes, Strictly speaking, a Christian can be anything he chooses - a lover of truth or a liar, a protector of life or a murdered, a generous giver of an embezzler. But should a Christian be a Freemason?"

I would say: "Only at the peril of the health of his soul".

What we have in Freemasonry is a very careful counterfeit - a type of religion which, in Christian countries at least, masquerades as little more than a good works club, but the spiritual implications of belonging to it are enormous. We are warned:

"See to it that no-one takes you captive through hollow and deceptive philosophy, which depends on human tradition and basic principles of this world rather than on Christ." (Colossians 2:8)

Many people - including Christians because of the secret nature of the Lodge and its method of progressive revelation - are innocently taken in and only much later find out what it is all about. It would appear that there is only one course open to Christians involved in Freemasonry if they want to remain faithful to the true God: Renounce all involvement, discard all items of apparel, memorabilia and writings and, in repentance, commit themselves totally to He who is the author and perfecter of true faith in God. (Hebrews 12:2)

The basic fact is that the tenents and practices of the Craft are incompatible with the Gospel of Jesus Christ and that must be the measuring stick for all Christians!

The following is an example of a Prayer many people have used to break any involvement with the Freemason, either ancestral or personal.

A Personal Prayer:

If you were once a member of a Masonic organisation or are a descendant of someone whois or was, we recommend that you pray through this prayer from your heart.

Please don't be like the Masons who are given their obligations and oaths one line at a time and without prior knowledge of the requirements. Please read it through first so you know what is involved.

It is best to pray this aloud with a Christian witness present. We suggest a brief pause following each paragraph to allow the Holy Spirit to show any related issues which may require attention.

A significant number of people also reported having experienced physical and spiritual healings as diverse as long-term headaches and epilepsy as the result of praying through this prayer. Christian counsellors and pastors in many countries have been using this prayer in counselling situations and seminars for several years, with real and significant results.

Some language could be described as 'quaint Old English' and are the real terms used in the Masonic ritual. The legal renunciation opens the way for spiritual, emotional and physical healing to take place.

There are differences between British Commonwealth Masonry and American & Prince Hall Masonry in the higher degrees. Degrees unique to Americans are marked with this sign "" at the commencement of each paragraph. Those of British Commonwealth decent shouldn't need to pray through those paragraphs.*

PRAYER OF RELEASE FOR FREEMASONS AND THEIR DESCENDANTS

The Prayer of Release

"Father God, creator of heaven and earth, I come to you in the name of Jesus Christ your Son. I come as a sinner seeking forgiveness and cleansing from all sins committed against you, and others made in your image. I honour my earthly father and mother and all of my ancestors of flesh and blood, and of the spirit by adoption and godparents, but I utterly turn away from and renounce all their sins.

"I forgive all my ancestors for the effects of their sins on me and my children. I confess and renounce all of my own sins, known and unknown. I renounce and rebuke Satan and every spiritual power of his affecting me and my family, in the name of Jesus Christ.

"True Holy Creator God, in the name of the True Lord Jesus Christ, in accordance with Jude 8-10; Psalm 82:1 and 2 Chronicles 18, I request you to move aside all Celestial Beings, including Principalities, Powers and Rulers and to forbid them to harass, intimidate or retaliate against me and all participants in this ministry today.

"I also ask that you prevent these beings of whatever rank, from being permitted to send any level of spiritual evil as retaliation against any of those here, or our families, our ministries, or possessions.

“I renounce and annul every covenant made with Death by my ancestors or myself, including every agreement made with Sheol, and I renounce the refuge of lies and falsehoods which have been hidden behind.

“In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, I renounce and forsake all involvement in Freemasonry or any other lodge, craft or occultism by my ancestors and myself. I also renounce and break the code of silence enforced by Freemasonry and the Occult on my family and myself.

“I renounce and repent of all pride and arrogance which opened the door for the slavery and bondage of Freemasonry to afflict my family and me. I now shut every door of witchcraft and deception operating in my life and seal it closed with the blood of the Lord Jesus Christ. I renounce every covenant, every blood covenant and every alliance with Freemasonry or the spiritual powers behind it made by my family or me.

“In the name of Jesus Christ, I rebuke, renounce and bind Witchcraft, the principal spirit behind Freemasonry, and I renounce and rebuke Baphomet, the Spirit of Antichrist and the spirits of Death, and Deception.

“I renounce and rebuke the Spirit of Fides, the Roman goddess of Fidelity that seeks to hold all Masonic and occultic participants and their descendants in bondage, and I ask the One True Holy Creator God to give me the gift of Faith to believe in the True Lord Jesus Christ as described in the Word of God.

“I also renounce and rebuke the Spirit of Prostitution which the Word of God says has led members of Masonic and other Occultic organisations astray, and caused them to become unfaithful to the One True and Holy God. I now choose to return and become faithful to the God of the Bible, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the Father of Jesus Christ, who I now declare is my Lord and Saviour.

“I renounce the insecurity, the love of position and power, the love of money, avarice or greed, and the pride which would have led my ancestors into Masonry. I renounce all the fears which held them in Masonry, especially the fears of death, fears of men, and fears of trusting, in the name of Jesus Christ.

“I renounce every position held in the lodge by any of my ancestors or myself, including "Master," "Worshipful Master," or any other occultic title. I renounce the calling of any man "Master," for Jesus Christ is my only master and Lord, and He forbids anyone else having that title. I renounce the entrapping of others into Masonry, and observing the helplessness of others during the rituals.

“I renounce the effects of Masonry passed on to me through any female ancestor who felt distrusted and rejected by her husband as he entered and attended any lodge and refused to tell her of his secret activities. I also renounce all obligations, oaths and curses enacted by every female member of my family through any direct membership of all Women's Orders of Freemasonry, the Order of the Eastern Star, or any other Masonic or occultic organisation.”

All participants should now be invited to sincerely carry out in faith the following actions:

- * Symbolically remove the blindfold (hoodwink) and give it to the Lord for disposal;
- * In the same way, symbolically remove the veil of mourning, to make way to receive the Joy of the Lord:
- * Symbolically cut and remove the noose from around the neck, gather it up with the cabletow running down the body and give it all to the Lord for His disposal;
- * Renounce the false Freemasonry marriage covenant, removing from the 4th finger of the right hand the ring of this false marriage covenant, giving it to the Lord to dispose of it;
- * Symbolically remove the chains and bondages of Freemasonry from your body;
- * Symbolically remove all Freemasonry regalia, including collars, gauntlets and armour, especially the Apron with its snake clasp, to make way for the Belt of Truth;
- * Remove the sliphod slippers, to make way for the shoes of the Gospel of Peace;
- * Symbolically remove the ball and chain from the ankles.
- * Invite participants to repent of and seek forgiveness for having walked on all unholy ground, including Freemasonry lodges and temples, including any Mormon or any other occultic/Masonic organisations.
- * Proclaim that Satan and his demons no longer have any legal rights to mislead and manipulate the person seeking help.

33rd & Supreme Degree

“In the name of Jesus Christ I renounce the oaths taken and the curses and iniquities involved in the supreme Thirty-Third Degree of Freemasonry, the Grand Sovereign Inspector General. I renounce the secret passwords, DEMOLAY-HIRUM ABIFF, FREDERICK OF PRUSSIA, MICHA, MACHA, BEALIM, and ADONAI, and all their occultic and Masonic meanings. I renounce all of the obligations of every Masonic degree, and all penalties invoked.

“I renounce and utterly forsake The Great Architect Of The Universe, who is revealed in the this degree as Lucifer, and his false claim to be the universal fatherhood of God. I reject the Masonic view of deity because it does not square with the reveltion of the One True and Holy Creator God of the Bible.

“I renounce the cable-tow around the neck. I renounce the death wish that the wine drunk from a human skull should turn to poison and the skeleton whose cold arms are invited if the oath of this degree is violated. I renounce the three infamous assassins of their grand master, law, property and religion, and the greed and witchcraft involved in the attempt to manipulate and control the rest of mankind.

“In the name of God the Father, Jesus Christ the Son, and the Holy Spirit, I renounce and break the curses and iniquities involved in the idolatry, blasphemy, secrecy and deception of Freemasonry at every level, and I appropriate the Blood of Jesus Christ to cleanse all the consequences of these from my life. I now revoke all previous consent given by any of my ancestors or myself to be deceived.

The Blue Lodge

“In the name of Jesus Christ I renounce the oaths taken and the curses and iniquities involved in the First or Entered Apprentice Degree, especially their effects on the throat and tongue. I renounce the Hoodwink blindfold and its effects on spirit, emotions and eyes, including all confusion, fear of the dark, fear of the light, and fear of sudden noises.

“I renounce the blinding of spiritual truth, the darkness of the soul, the false imagination, condescension and the spirit of poverty caused by the ritual of this degree. I also renounce the usurping of the marriage covenant by the removal of the wedding ring. I renounce the secret word, BOAZ, and its Masonic meaning. I renounce the serpent clasp on the apron, and the spirit of Python which it brought to squeeze the spiritual life out of me.

“I renounce the ancient pagan teaching from Babylon and Egypt and the symbolism of the First Tracing Board. I renounce the mixing and mingling of truth and error, the mythology, fabrications and lies taught as truth, and the dishonesty by leaders as to the true understanding of the ritual, and the blasphemy of this degree of Freemasonry.

“I renounce the breaking of five of God's Ten Commandments during participation in the rituals of the Blue Lodge degrees. I renounce the presentation to every compass direction, for all the Earth is the Lord's, and everything in it. I renounce the cabletow noose around the neck, the fear of choking and also every spirit causing asthma, hayfever, emphysema or any other breathing difficulty.

“ I renounce the ritual dagger, or the compass point, sword or spear held against the breast, the fear of death by stabbing pain, and the fear of heart attack from this degree, and the absolute secrecy demanded under a witchcraft oath and sealed by kissing the Volume of the Sacred Law. I also renounce kneeling to the false deity known as the Great Architect of the Universe, and humbly ask the One True God to forgive me for this idolatry, in the name of Jesus Christ.

“I renounce the pride of proven character and good standing required prior to joining Freemasonry, and the resulting self-righteousness of being good enough to stand before God without the need of a saviour. I now pray for healing of... (throat, vocal cords, nasal passages, sinus, bronchial tubes etc.) for healing of the speech area, and the release of the Word of God to me and through me and my family.

Second or Fellow Craft Degree of Masonry

“In the name of Jesus Christ I renounce the oaths taken and the curses and iniquities involved in the Second or Fellow Craft Degree of Masonry, especially the curses on the heart and chest. I renounce the secret words SHIBBOLETH and JACHIN, and all their Masonic meaning. I renounce the ancient pagan teaching and symbolism of the Second Tracing Board. I renounce the Sign of Reverence to the Generative Principle. I cut off emotional hardness, apathy, indifference, unbelief, and deep anger from me and my family. In the name of Jesus Christ I pray for the healing of ...(the chest/lung/heart area) and also for the healing of my emotions, and ask to be made sensitive to the Holy Spirit of God.

Third or Master Mason Degree

“In the name of Jesus Christ I renounce the oaths taken and the curses and iniquities involved in the Third or Master Mason Degree, especially the curses on the stomach and womb area. I renounce the secret words TUBAL CAIN and MAHA BONE, and all their Masonic meaning. I renounce the ancient pagan teaching and symbolism of the Third Tracing Board used in the ritual. I renounce the Spirit of Death from the blows to the head enacted as ritual murder, the fear of death, false martyrdom, fear of violent gang attack, assault, or rape, and the helplessness of this degree. I renounce the falling into the coffin or stretcher involved in the ritual of murder.

“In the name of Jesus Christ I renounce Hiram Abiff, the false saviour of Freemasons revealed in this degree. I renounce the false resurrection of this degree, because only Jesus Christ is the Resurrection and the Life!

“I renounce the pagan ritual of the "Point within a Circle" with all its bondages and phallus worship. I renounce the symbol "G" and its veiled pagan symbolism and bondages. I renounce the occultic mysticism of the black and white mosaic chequered floor with the tessellated boarder and five-pointed blazing star.

I renounce the All-Seeing Third Eye of Freemasonry or Horus in the forehead and its pagan and occult symbolism. I rebuke and reject every spirit of divination which allowed this occult ability to operate. Action: Put your hand over your forehead.) I now close that Third eye and all occult ability to see into the spiritual realm, in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, and put my trust in the Holy Spirit sent by Jesus Christ for all I need to know on spiritual matters.

“I renounce all false communions taken, all mockery of the redemptive work of Jesus Christ on the cross of Calvary, all unbelief, confusion and depression. I renounce and forsake the lie of Freemasonry that man is not sinful, but merely imperfect, and so can redeem himself through good works. I rejoice that the Bible states that I cannot do a single thing to earn my salvation, but that I can only be saved by grace through faith in Jesus Christ and what He accomplished on the Cross of Calvary.

“I renounce all fear of insanity, anguish, death wishes, suicide and death in the name of Jesus Christ. Death was conquered by Jesus Christ, and He alone holds the keys of death and hell, and I rejoice that He holds my life in His hands now. He came to give me life abundantly and eternally, and I believe His promises.

“I renounce all anger, hatred, murderous thoughts, revenge, retaliation, spiritual apathy, false religion, all unbelief, especially unbelief in the Holy Bible as God's Word, and all compromise of God's Word. I renounce all spiritual searching into false religions, and all striving to please God. I rest in the knowledge that I have found my Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, and that He has found me.

“In the name of Jesus Christ I pray for the healing of... (the stomach, gall bladder, womb, liver, and any other organs of my body affected by Masonry), and I ask for a release of compassion and understanding for me and my family.

The York Rite

“I renounce and forsake the oaths taken and the curses and iniquities involved in the York Rite Degrees of Masonry.
